

Etheric Weaver

by Timi Agnew

The Etheric Weaver is a special quartz crystal transmitter that can open and balance blockages in the auric/etheric field to release negativity. It can vitalize and regenerate a person. Throughout the healing session, it resonates with the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual bodies, vibrationally aligning the etheric bodies and chakras. It works on the level, where the old karmic web can be dismantled, and any damage to the vital web can be repaired.

The Etheric Weaver stimulates the awakening of the heart and shifts the downward flow into an upward flow; where the etheric bodies can unify and integrate with the Soul.

It awakens the inner light, which can aide in the healing of past life karma, and can help attracting the right relationships for yourself. Furthermore it can increase our awareness of angels.

During the healing session typically individuals enter a very transcendental state which includes visions, strong impressions, and the releasing of negative influences held in the etheric field.
