Sacred Geometry

by Timi Agnew

Sacred Geometry is the "Architecture of the Universe". The Merkaba of Oneness healing tool that I use in my healing sessions is based on this Geometry of the Angels. It works with our life force structures, and when it spins, its vortex-induced vibrations interact with the body's meridians -just like acupuncture-, aiding the restoration of our physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual bodies to their natural state. This 3-D Mer-Ka-Bah induces Oneness by activating the Metatron and Shekinah vibrations inherent within.

I also use a special tool that is based on Archangel Metatron's Sacred Geometry. I call it the Metatron Ring. It fits perfectly on the top of the 3-D Mer-Ka-Bah. This gold sacred ring is unique in the Metaphysical realm with its three woven strands and sterling silver triangle. It also holds three specially cut magnets that help this dimensional portal reach to the level of Source, creating a strong current of loving, transformational energy. The big (outer) ring is capable of accessing Source Dimension, which is the highest source available to a human being. The three smaller rings (that are holding the special magnets) create an energy flow from the 6th Dimension of Light, which is inhabited by the Archangels. Since I work with the Archangels, especially with Metatron and Shekinah, this Ring truly compliments my healing sessions. According to its maker, this Ring increases the healing energy flow over 1000 times.
